Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer, MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Feb. 5.— Last summer an individual arrived in Morgantown. There was nothing re-markable in this fact, but the way in which he victimized the citizens of this place is truly remarkable. He arrived in August. He left yesterday. In all that time he did not expend a cent that had become his honestly. He is the acme of dead beats.

He claimed kinship with a well-known atudent of Terra Alta, who has many relatives here. The name he gave was C. S. Scott. He was admitted into the hest ramilles in town. The Wallace House was finally accepted by him and he stayed there until recently, but no money for board was forthcoming. He not only beat this house, but beat sever-more only beat this house, but beat several boarding houses in town.

The Watson House at Fulrmont was also victimized by him. His books were bought with money loaned by Prof. W. P. Willey, 330 being the sum thus raised. His clothes were purchased by Dr. St. George T. Brooke, who went his security. This bill was $40.

A note was recently paid by Judge Okey Johnson, amounting to $30. Nearly avery student was victimized for amounts ranging from fity cents to $10. Furniture men, merchants, tobacconists and restaurant keepers furnished him the beat to be had of everything. Finally his character began to be generally known. A tradesman called with a bill. Scott coolly informed him that it was unlawful to trust a student and any further agitation would lead to an indictment for violating his section of the code. When his escapade became known a crowd of students went to his room last night, and after handling him very roughly gave him twenty-four bours to get out of town. To-day he had to town. roughly gave him twenty-four to get out of town. To-day he but his memory will long remain in the hearts of the victims he went, but his memory will long remain green in the hearts of the victims he left behind.

A complete list of these would include nearly every prominent man in town, and many are not yet known, and probably through shame at being taken in by such a bare-faced fraud will keep them from ever telling it.

Scott is about five feet, ten inches iall, weighs about 135 pounds, has dark eyes, very black hair, wears it rather long; very swarthy complexion and dresses in the very latest styles.

win, a small but important town in South Australia, was almost entirely wiped out by one of those fearful hur-South Australia, was almost entirely wiped out by one of those fearful huricianes which periodically strike the coast of Australia, destroying property and very often life. Luckily in this case no lives were lost, but from the meagre reports which have been received in Sydney, previous to the saling of the steamer Warrimo, which has just arrived here, the loss of property must have been very large. The wind was accompanied by a heavy rain, which ruined the furniture in residences and 200s in stores, which had been deprived of their roofs. The residents had to obtain shelter as best they could. It was a miracle that no one was killed. The telegraph cowines were demoralized by the storm and consequently news from the scene the scene of disaster is meagre. The fire started Monday, January 4, and rain was pourting down on the following Thursday when the barometer began to fall and the wind to how! The wind was at its height by Thursday morning and kept it up all day.

Among the few dispatches received from Sydney was one from the post-master, in which the following paragraph appears:

The town is practically destroyed.

master, in which the following paragraph appears:

"The town is practically destroyed, all buildings being either heaps of ruins or very badly damaged. The rain fall Mohday and Wednesday, was 4.39 inches. On Thursday one inch was recorded.

Postal Union Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—In a letter to the secretary of the treasury which has been transmitted to Congress Postmaster-General Wilson recommends an appropriation of $200,000 to cover the expenses of the meeting of cover the expenses of the meeting of the Congress of nations, composing the postal union, which will gather in this city the first Wednesday in May, and be in session six weeks or two mouths. Mr. Wilson says that he has no way of itemizing the cost of the Congress, but thinks that $300,000 might cover the expenses. He says that distinguished representatives of foreign nations, including postmasters-general of those nations, will be present and that he considers it the duty of this country to provide for the Congress in suitable style. He mentions the fact that at other sessions of the Congress the delogates have been entertained by the rulers of the countries and that nathing which could be done for the delegates herstofore has been left undone.

The United States of Nevada.

CARSON, Nevada, Feb. 5.—The state supreme court has decided that the state courts have no jurisdiction over offenses committed on government property. A few weeks ago United States district attorney Jones assaulted, the celtor of the Appeal, while on the postoffice steps. It was calimed that he used brass knuckles, and he was indicted by a grand jury for assault to do bodily harm. Jones contended that the state authorities had no jurisdiction over the alleged crime as it had been committed on property ceded to the government by the state. The lower court decided against him, but the supreme court holds that persons charged with crime committed on government property can be tried only by the federal court. state courts have no jurisdiction over Human Ingenuity.

Certainly, for the mechanic, human ingenuity has never produced a better liniment than Salvation Oil, which now stands unexcelled for curing his sprains and bruises caused by a fall; or cuts and wounds the result of an accident with his tool or saw. Salvation Oil al-ways kills pain. "Recently, I fell about twenty feet and was very much bruised on my leg and side, but after bathing them with Salvation Oil the bruises soon disappeared. I think Salvation Oil is just the thing for sorea and bruises." A. Jacob Rice, 520 Church St., Easton, Pa. Salvation Oil may be bought anywhere for 25 cents. Substitutes offered by dealers may cost less; hence, do less. Salvation Oll, however, never disappoints the user.

SENATORIAL SITUATION

In Oregon-Split in Legislature, Which Refuses to Elect a Senator.

SALEM, Oregon, Feb. 5.—From the beginning of the session, the Mitchell men have been in their seats in the house, prepared to organize, but the opposition composed, of Populists, opposition composed , of Democrats and anti-Mitchell Republi-Democrats and anti-Mitchell Republicans, twenty-nine in all, have refused to enter the house and effect permanent organization. The Mitchell men, a week ago Monday, attempted to organize themselves with simply a majority present and elected Benson speaker, but it is now generally conceded that if the legislature of the state is taken as a guide, no less than two-thirds of the members of the legislature are competent to organize and the business.

two-thirds of the members of the legislature are competent to organize and do business.

Senator Mitchell has already received the nomination for senator by a caucus composed of forty-six members, or a majority of the legislature. It will therefore, be decided by the Mitchell men to force a tote for United States senator on the second Tuesday after organization. The Benson house voted Tuesdays, but a resolution providing for a ballot in the zenate falled of passage, several of the senators declaring that while they favored Mitchell for senator, they did not believe the Benson house was legally organized and therefore acclined to vote for a resolution which practically recognized the legality of the house.

Weduesday, the Mitchell men met in joint assembly, but the necessary forty-six members not appearing, no effort was made to ballot for senator.

The joint assembly meets from day to day in the hope that the necessary forfy-six votes can be secured, but at present Mitchell is eight short of a majority. It now seems probable that the entire session will be wasted and that no legislation will be enacted, two-thirds of the session having already expired.

From the Leader, Cleveland, Ohio; John P. Somhaliter, who lives at No. 58 Melrose Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, is one of a small army who can bear testimony to Dr. Williams Pink Pills. Mr. Somhaliter is in the prime of life. He is married and his family is his pride. He is strong and athletic and has a splendid physique. But like many other men who are similarly fortunate in the possession of an excellent constitution, he recently overestimated the strain which it could undergo. He is the yardmaster of the Zettelmeyer Coal Company, Nos. 35 to 31 Commercial St. and in that capacity finds it necessary to exercise considerable physical strength. The use of a great deal of muscular energy, however, did not seem to affect him in any manner until last spring. Then he discovered, to his alarm, that he had been overwerting himself. He began to be troubled with congosition, mental and physical prostration, a relaxation of the muscular tissues, insomnia, and other symptoms of the result of overwork. But the story in his own words is interesting for he tells it in the plain and simple manner characteristic of a man who earns his sustemance by the sweat of his brow and at the same time he pays a glowing tribute to his inanimate and diminutive benefactor:

"It was last May," said Mr. Sonnhalter, "that I began to notice the effects of my hard work. The blood would rush from my heart into my head, and almost make me faint. I felthat my strength was on the wane, and my entire system seemed to be out of order. Strong as I was I would feel weak. I was nervous, and felt distressed not only in body, but in mind as well. When I awoke in the morning I dreaded to think of the hard days work which was ahead of me. My footsteps were not as light and sprightly as formerly, and I was afraid I would break down completely unless I got better soon. I was suffering, you might say, from general debility. Was tired all over, and nearly all the time. "I knew that some line of the pumphlet or advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Then my appetite returned, and with it came my old time vigor. My muscles are strong as ever now, and my health is good, and the pills did just what they were advertised to do.

"My work in the coal yard is hard, and I often have to overtax myself. But if I ever get in the condition I was last May, I'll buy more of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They do more good than a doctor, and I have recommended them to my friends."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow checks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature. They are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady. N. X., and are sold by all druggists at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for £50.

Parkersburg State Journal: Particulars as to the exact status of affairs existing between L. B. McFarland and the Second National Bank are rather hard to get.

From reliable authority we learn that about $28,000 or $30,000 of the shortage has been made up.

The property of Mr. McFarland, which he assigned to the bank, is reckneed at from $13,000 to $15,000.

The question of whether Mr. McFarland will be prosecuted is still a topic for discussion throughout the city. As far as the bank is concerned, if the deficit is made good, he may not be prosecuted. But the government has something to say about running National banks and the last sentence provided for in that particular United States statute governing a case of the McEarland over the development in the case in t

True and False Giving.

Five thousand names more on the church record at Jerusalem within a few weeks after Pentecost. Many these persons were strangers from distant parts. They had overstaid their time to learn more of their newly-espoused faith. The present speedy methds of obtaining remittances were undreamed of. They began to be in need. It is evident that many of the resident converts also were poor. All adherents to the new religion, also, would be boycotted by others. Distress prevalled. Under circumstances like these, that radiant flower, benevolence, burst forth in beauty, and filled the church with its lasting frugrance.

The congregation of believers set themselves to meet the emergency. Not by any edict or decree, but shoutaneously, there arose a species of communism. Fortunate possessors of real estate converted it into cash, and put the disposal of the apostles for the relief of their fellow-believers.

One of the most conspicuous examples of this voluntary surrender of property was that of Joses, a Lavite of Cyprus. The apostles called him "Son of Consolation," in recognition of the relief his generosity afforded.

The root of Ananias's sin was cnvy. He wanted a still high-sounding title. He would relegate that Cyprian to the relief his enerosity afforded.

The root of Ananias's sin was cnvy. He wanted to outshine Joses. He would relegate that Cyprian to the rear. But there was a dash of cupidity with his envy. He was not willing to pay the full price. He would lie to avoid it.

There would be room for pity had Ananias been overtaken by sudden tempitation, and fallen after some show of resistance. But the act was deliberate, with malice aforethought. It was matter of conversation between the gullty man and his wife.

The punishment of Ananias and Sapphira is confessedly terrible. It is a shocking page in the New Testament. What shall we say to it? Why, its very exceptional character serves to accentuate the general and persistent forbearance of God. The Lord's rule is to be merciful and gracious. If all lying hypocrites were smitten dead, the slath of the Lord would be counted by regiments, That they are not so smitten, illustrates the long-suffering patience of God.

The punishment did not exceed the bounds of desert. Yet its awful severity, and the scenic manner of its infliction, show that it was designed to be exemplary. This trage pleture was hung on the wall of
